1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Prima Diamond Corp. (formerly Prima Fluorspar Corp. and Camisha Resources Corp.) (“Prima” or the “Company”) was incorporated on October 1, 2009, under the laws of British Columbia as a Capital Pool Company (“CPC”) as defined by Policy 2.4 (the “CPC Policy”) of the TSX Venture Exchange (the “Exchange”). On August 14, 2012, the Exchange accepted the Company’s Qualifying Transaction and Company commenced trading as a Tier 2 Mining Issuer under the symbol “CRN”. On April 18, 2013, the Company completed a reverse takeover with 0941680 BC Ltd. (formerly Prima Fluorspar Corp., a private company incorporated in British Columbia on May 29, 2012) in which Prima issued 11,515,000 common shares to all 0941680 BC Ltd.’s shareholders on a one for one basis, subject to escrow agreements pursuant to National Policy 46-201. Consequently, the Company is deemed to be a continuation of 0941680 BC Ltd. and Prima is deemed to have been acquired in consideration for its issued and outstanding shares prior to the reverse takeover transaction. A Special Shareholders Meeting for Prima was held on February 20, 2013 to approve the purchase agreement, approve the change of the Company name to Prima Fluorspar Corp., and elect new directors. The resulting company commenced trading as a Tier 2 Mining Issuer under the symbol “PF” on April 19, 2013. 0941680 BC Ltd was voluntarily dissolved on October 28, 2013. On July 3, 2014, the Company announced its new additional focus on diamond exploration, and changed its name to Prima Diamond Corp, trading under the symbol “PMD”.

The head office, principal address and registered and records office of the Company are located at Suite 1450 – 789 West Pender, Vancouver, BC, Canada, V6C 1H2.

2. GOING CONCERN

The Company has not generated any revenues and has incurred accumulated losses of $3,277,166 (October 31, 2015 – $3,231,950) since inception. As at October 31, 2015, the Company has working capital deficiency of $1,009,722 (October 31, 2015 – $997,120). These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of accounting principles applicable to a "going concern", which assumes that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations.

The application of the going concern concept is dependent upon the Company’s ability to satisfy its liabilities as they become due and to obtain the necessary financing to complete the exploration and development of its diamond and fluorspar mineral property interests, the attainment of profitable mining operations or the receipt of proceeds from the disposition of its mineral property interests. Management is actively engaged in the review and due diligence on opportunities of merit in the mining sector and is seeking to raise the necessary capital to meet its funding requirements. There is, primarily as a result of the conditions described above, cast significant doubt as to the appropriateness of the use of the going concern assumption.

The Company is not expected to be profitable during the ensuing twelve months and therefore must rely on securing additional funds from either debt or equity financings for cash consideration. During the three months ended January 31, 2016, the Company received net cash proceeds of $nil (October 31, 2015 – $nil) pursuant to equity financing activities. While the Company is expanding its best efforts to achieve the continued financing, there is no assurance that any such activity will generate sufficient funds for future operations.

3. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Statement of Compliance

These condensed consolidated interim statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”), as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”), applicable to the presentation of interim financial statements, including IAS 34, Interim Financial Reporting.

The policies applied in these condensed interim financial statements are consistent with policies disclosed in Note 4 of Prima’s financial statements for the year ended October 31, 2015. These condensed interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company’s audited financial statements for the year ended October 31, 2015.

Basis of Measurement

These financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis except for certain financial instruments that are measured at fair value, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair value of the consideration given in exchange for assets.

Approval of the Financial Statements

The financial statements of Prima Diamond Corp. for the three months ended January 31, 2016, were authorized for issue in accordance with a resolution of the directors on March 16, 2016.

Significant Accounting Judgments, Estimates and Assumptions

The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Estimates and assumptions are continuously evaluated and are based on management’s experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. However, actual outcomes can differ from these estimates.

Estimates and assumptions

In particular, information about significant areas of estimation uncertainty considered by management in preparing the financial statements includes:

- The recoverability of the carrying value of the exploration and evaluation assets is dependent on successful development and commercial exploitation, or alternatively, sale of the respective areas of interest;
- The inputs used in assessing the recoverability of deferred tax assets to the extent that the deductible temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and that the Company will have future taxable income;
- Management’s assumption that there are currently no decommissioning liabilities is based on the facts and circumstances that have existed during the periods; and
- The inputs used in accounting for share-based payments in the statements of operations and comprehensive loss.

3. BASIS OF PRESENTATION - continued

Judgments

The critical judgments that the Company's management has made in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies from those involving estimations that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the Company's financial statements are as follows:

- Economic recoverability and probability of future economic benefits of exploration, evaluation and development costs

Management has determined that exploratory drilling, evaluation, development and related costs incurred which have been capitalized are economically recoverable. Management uses several criteria in its assessments of economic recoverability and probability of future economic benefit including geologic information, scoping and feasibility studies, accessible facilities, existing permits and life of mine plans.

- Provisions for reclamation

Management assesses its provision for reclamation on an annually basis or when new information becomes available. This assessment includes the estimation of the future rehabilitation costs, the timing of these expenditures, and the impact of changes in discount rates. The actual future expenditures may differ from the amounts currently provided if the estimates made are significantly different than actual results or if there are significant changes in environmental and/or regulatory requirements in the future.

- Going concern

Significant judgments used in the preparation of these financial statements include, but are not limited to those relating to the assessment of the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

4. EXPLORATION AND EVALUATION ASSETS

The Company is exposed in varying degrees to a variety of financial instrument-related risks. The Board of Directors approves and monitors the risk management processes, inclusive of documented investment policies, counterparty limits, and controlling and reporting structures. The type of risk exposure and the way in which such exposure is managed is provided as follows:

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with a counter party's inability to fulfill its payment obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to its cash balances. The Company manages its credit risk on bank deposits by holding deposits in high credit quality banking institutions in Canada.

(b) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company has a planning and budgeting process in place to help determine the funds required to support the Company's normal operating requirements on an ongoing basis. The Company ensures that there are sufficient funds to meet its short-term business requirements, taking into account its anticipated cash flows from operations and its holdings of cash and cash equivalents.

Historically, the Company's sole source of funding has been the issuance of equity securities for cash, primarily through private placements. The Company's access to financing is always uncertain. There can be no assurance of continued access to significant equity funding.

(c) Foreign exchange risk

The Company is not exposed to foreign currency risk on fluctuations considering that its assets and liabilities are stated in Canadian dollars.

(d) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company has cash balances and is not exposed to any significant interest rate risk.

(e) Capital management

Capital is comprised of the Company's shareholders' equity and any debt it may issue. As at January 31, 2016, the Company's shareholders' equity deficit was $335,044 (October 31, 2015 - $289,828). The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to the Company, in order to support its operations and business development. The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business.

The Company has not generated any revenues and cash flows since its inception; therefore, the Company is dependent on external financing to fund its future intended business plan. The capital structure of the Company currently consists of working capital and shareholders' equity. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments to it in the light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of the underlying assets. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may issue new shares through private placements. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes that this approach, given the relative size of the Company, is reasonable.
